Today, I found that our BrightFire website has been featured on several CSS Gallery sites. These sites include:

cssbloom.com

dailyslurp.com (featured September 18, 2006)

mostinspired.com

lightondark.com

It is truly an honor to have our work featured on these sites, and as a web designer it is one of the best feelings in the world.

Thank you again for this great honor, and we will continue to develop memorable sites.
